Amrita University wins award

Amrita University's open-source e-learning solution, A-view, has won the 2016 FICCI National Award for Excellence in Technology. It was received by Kamal Bijlani, director, E-learning Research Lab from NITI Aayog vice chairman Arvind Panagariya at the 12th FICCI Higher Education Summit. The A-view software can be set up in classrooms for groups or individual learners and is available free through its website.
