e-Learning soln for Maharashtra schools launched

Already deployed in higher educational institutes across the country, Amrita University's e-Learning platform A-VIEW, will now be used in schools also Pune: Amrita University's e-Learning Platform A-VIEW (Amrita Virtual Interactive E-Learning World) was formally launched for schools in Maharashtra on Friday at Amrita Vidyalayam here.

Former UGC Chairman Arun Nigawekar launched the solution at an impressive function here.

The award-winning A-VIEW platform has already been successfully deployed at more than 2,000 higher educational institutions across the country. Now this platform will be rolled out in schools across the country.

Speaking on the occasion Maharashtra Education Society (MES) President Dr. Ravindra Wanjarwadkar, said, "We will integrate A-VIEW with our Digital Campus system to further enhance the quality of education."

Dr. Hemant Darbari, Executive Director, CDAC Pune, Shri Indrajeet Deshmukh, Maharashtra Deputy Commissioner for Regional Development, and Srimati Pushplata Pawar, Education Officer, Pune Municipal Corporation, participated in this event.

The solution is supported by the National Mission on Education through ICT of the HRD Ministry.
