With the aim of promoting e-learning and disseminating quality education, Amrita E-Learning Research Lab is launching its indigenously developed e-learning software A-VIEW (Amrita Virtual Interactive E-Learning World) for universities and colleges in the eastern States of the country.

A statement issued by the lab said that A-VIEW would be launched at Kolkata on January 18 and at Bhubaneswar on January 21 as part of spiritual leader Mata Amritanandamayi's 'Bharata Yatra 2013.'

West Bengal Minister for Commerce and Industry Partha Chatterjee; Indian Institute of Management-Calcutta Director Shekhar Chaudhuri; Jadavpur University Vice-Chancellor Souvik Bhattacharyya; and C.S. Kumar, Mechanical Engineering Department, IIT Kharagpur, would attend the function in Kolkata.

A-VIEW would be provided free of cost to all institutes of higher education. It was being used on a pilot basis in schools in Maharashtra and Kerala, the statement said.
